Description

They are the last ! A beautiful set of eight large and luxurious damask bath towels in a "partridge eye" pattern, made of linen thread. The fine, tightly woven pattern features a small, slightly raised, subtly lustrous diamond. Their softness and absorbency are due to the subtle texture. The ultimate in refinement: at each end, The hem is finished with a small "Venise" opening by hand. The weave is double-sided. Meticulous craftsmanship and exceptionally high-quality fabric, just as they were made in the past! These towels are unmonogrammed. Their charming little diamond pattern allows for multiple uses: bath towels, napkins, cushions, dishcloths for glasses or fine china... Dimensions: 89 cm x 69 cm. These are vintage and have been used. They therefore show slight signs of wear but no
