Description

Rare and unusual model of a walnut chest of drawers with an alternating two-tone effect of ebony and walnut. The drawers, side panels, and pilaster strips are carved, but the most distinctive feature is the finely crafted sides, which feature a similar topographical view of the city. Another distinctive feature is the varying heights and sizes of the drawers, likely a reference to the cabinet's intended use, which unfortunately is unknown. This model was made during the 17th century in Tuscany or the Umbria-Marche region. Its dimensions are: 49 cm long x 49 cm high x 29 cm deep. A certificate of authenticity is included with the sale.
