Description

An elegant decorative sculpture of a rearing cobra, crafted from glossy black glazed ceramic. This expressive piece, with its finely modeled scales and majestic bearing, perfectly embodies the Italian aesthetic of the 1960s and 70s, reminiscent of the work of Tommaso Barbi. The dynamic pose and high-quality glaze give this cobra a strong sculptural presence, ideal for a modern, vintage, or Art Deco interior. A meticulously crafted decorative piece, straddling the line between sculpture and art object, typical of Italian productions of this period.
