Description

Oil on canvas painting depicting a still life with flowers, executed with a controlled and textured brushwork characteristic of Giovanni Barbisan's production. The composition is built on a quiet balance between form and atmosphere, using a restrained palette of cool, muted tones--greys, pale blues and soft greens--which give the work an intimate and contemplative mood.The vase, solid and centrally placed, stands out against a neutral and subtly vibrating background, while the floral bouquet is suggested through dense, broken brushstrokes that privilege matter and light over detailed description. The result is a modern still life, far from decorative intent, focused instead on a poetic and understated interpretation of everyday objects.The painting is signed "Barbisan" in the lower right corner.
