Description

Large French mirror dating from the late 19th century, featuring an exquisite carved wooden frame finished in gold leaf. The richly decorated moulding with classical relief motifs retains its original patina, enhancing its charm and authentic period character. The generous mirror plate is bright and reflective, showing subtle signs of age that attest to its history and add depth and value to the piece. Perfect as a focal point in a living room, entrance hall, or bedroom, this mirror brings elegance, light, and a sense of space to any interior, blending beautifully with both classic and contemporary settings. A highly decorative statement piece, ideal for collectors and lovers of antique furnishings.
