Description

This elegant kidney-shaped table is crafted from solid mahogany, its distinctive kidney-shaped top adorned with rosewood marquetry depicting rays that evoke a refined solar composition. This decorative detail adds a luminous and sophisticated touch to the piece. The table's apron features two discreet drawers, perfect for storing small items. It also includes a green leather-covered pull-out drawer, adding valuable functionality to this charming piece. The base, composed of curved legs, lends the table a graceful and slender appearance. These legs are connected by a stretcher shelf, ensuring both stability and elegance, while also providing additional storage space. This piece of furniture fits perfectly into a classic or romantic interior.Period: Late 19th century.
