Description

Art Nouveau period bracelet in 18-karat yellow gold, composed of seven oval links featuring a naturalistic plant motif (ivy leaves), characteristic of the period (1895-1910). Each finely articulated link perfectly follows the curve of the wrist, and the chiseling and textured background create a beautiful play of light, enhanced by an antique patina acquired naturally over time. History of the piece: passed down from mother to daughter for four generations. Maker's mark and guarantee mark + eagle's head. Safety clasp. Weight: 29.3 grams. Length: 17 centimeters. Notes: A video of the piece being worn can be sent upon request. All 18-karat gold jewelry comes with a certificate of authenticity specifying the metal, stone, weight, size, and purity, thus guaranteeing its exceptional quality.
