Description

French School, late 19th centuryCircle / Follower of Alfred Monticelli (1824-1886)In the decorative and chromatic spirit of the celebrated master of modern fête galante paintingDescriptionImportant oil on panel depicting an elegant garden fête set within a monumental architectural landscape, animated by refined figures gathered around banquet tables beneath a luminous, pastel-toned sky.The painting stands out for its rich impasto, layered brushwork and vibrant chromatic harmonies, directly recalling the pictorial language developed by Alfred Monticelli, whose influence shaped a generation of French painters at the end of the 19th century.Stylistic AnalysisThe surface reveals generous, sculptural paint application, particularly visible in the foliage, garments and sky. The palette blends
