Description

Armand Lourenço (1925-2003) - Oil on canvas - Rue Saint-Antoine, Paris. Oil on canvas depicting a view of Paris - Rue Saint-Antoine. Signed lower left. Armand Lourenço was a French painter, known for his views of Paris, urban scenes, landscapes, portraits, and occasionally depictions of the circus world. He specialized in historical views of Paris (1900-1930) and scenes of daily life, with a particular fondness for the atmosphere of Montmartre and the circus. He was influenced by Parisian artistic circles and associated with some painters of his time, sometimes sharing studios or social circles around the Bateau-Lavoir. On display at the Galerie Courcelles Antiquités, 41 rue des Acacias, in the 17th arrondissement of Paris.
