Description

An elegant ceiling light from Sonover, emblematic of French Art Deco production in the 1930s. This model is distinguished by its circular, satin-finished pressed glass shade, delicately decorated with a radiating geometric pattern punctuated by hexagonal shapes, typical of the decorative vocabulary of the period. Suspension is provided by the original twisted burgundy cord, adding a refined decorative touch and a warm contrast to the subtle transparency of the glass. The antique socket retains its original patina, highlighting the authenticity of the piece. The diffused light is soft and even, ideal for an entryway, living room, bedroom, or reception area with a strong Art Deco character. Delivery within France: EUR59. Delivery within Europe: EUR99.
