Description

Superb Empire-style bookcase with an architectural design, veneered in mottled birch (burl), opening with two side glass doors framing a central niche. It is topped with a triangular pediment adorned with a gilt bronze laurel wreath, resting on cylindrical columns with metal rings. The whole piece displays an elegant neoclassical inspiration, reminiscent of the monumental decorations of the First Empire. A 20th-century decorative work of fine quality, offering a remarkable presence and ample storage capacity. Four height-adjustable shelves on each side. Locks and two working keys. Very good overall condition. Home delivery EUR250. Contact us for more information.
