Description

A contemporary ring in 18k yellow gold (750/°°, eagle's head hallmark), set with a central aquamarine in a distinctive rectangular cut with cut corners. This stone boasts a rich color, reminiscent of the finest aquamarines from the Santa Maria mine in Brazil. This high-quality stone is accompanied by a pavé of brilliant-cut diamonds, set with a particularly well-executed grain pattern, enhanced by a shoulder set with baguette-cut diamonds, giving it a distinctly jewelry-like aesthetic. All these diamonds are of exceptional quality, set in a meticulously crafted mount. The ring's substantial volume is curved to hug the finger for comfortable wear and perfect ergonomics. Please note: as with any large stone of this rectangular cut, the lighter effect in the center of the stone is due to the photography.
