This 19th-century French liqueur, dating back to the Napoleon III era, is made of ebonized wood and beveled glass on all sides. The top and front of the cabinet are decorated with inlaid vine leaves and bunches of grapes, making it unique and elegant, and the interior is complemented by gilded brass frames. Inside, we find its original service, consisting of four liquor bottles and sixteen cut crystal glasses, housed in its original wooden basket, veneered in rosewood, with a gilded bronze basket handle. Please note: (see photo) one of the bottles has a slight chip in the neck, and two glasses are also antique from the period, but slightly different in shape and decoration.PERIOD: 19th century France, Napoleon IIIDIMENSIONS: W 36 cm x D 27.5 cm x H 29 cmCONDITION: Excellent condition
