Description
-------------

Fabergé, vase/egg, crystal, marked, 20th century Beautiful decorative crystal vase/egg marked Fabergé, inspired by the famous tradition of Russian imperial eggs. The object is in perfect condition and is embellished with a golden imperial crown on the lid, a clear symbolic reference to the court of the tsars. The ovoid body is made of finely crafted transparent crystal, with an elegant lattice pattern enclosing faceted red inserts, creating a refined play of light and depth. The base, also in crystal, is shaped and solid, designed to ensure stability and harmonious proportions. The work explicitly recalls the famous original Fabergé eggs, masterpieces of fine jewelry created between 1885 and 1917 by Peter Carl Fabergé and his workshop for the Russian imperial family. Although it is a modern
