Bourdaloue In Chinese Porcelain, 18th Century

2 100 EUR

Period : 18th century
Condition : Bon état
Material : Porcelain
Length : 23,4 cm
Width : 11,5 cm
Height : 14 cm

Description

A Chinese famille rose porcelain urinal from the Qianlong period (1736-1795) with polychrome decoration of flowers and foliage. It has its lid. Oblong in shape, this small object, a kind of urinal, owes its name to the Jesuit priest Louis Bordaloue, whose long and eloquent sermons became indispensable to devout women.

Dealer

Christophe HAVAS
Furniture and works of art of the XVIIth, XVIIIth and early XIXth century
Mobile : 06 09 31 71 14

Paris 75000