environment, while in the background a rolling landscape opens up with distant architecture, adding depth and perspective to the whole. The color palette, dominated by warm and delicate tones (ochres, soft greens, pinkish beiges), gives the work great visual harmony.This tapestry perfectly illustrates the aristocratic taste for an idealized vision of rural life, inspired by French Rococo painters such as Watteau or Boucher, and highly prized in grand interior decorations.A high-quality decorative work, characteristic of the Aubusson tradition, combining fineness of drawing, richness of vegetal ornamentation, and elegant narrative.
