

Antique Oil On Canvas "the Holy Face Of Jesus Christ" Ecce Homo

1 600 EUR

Period : 17th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Oil painting

Description

The painting is a portrait of the Holy Face of Jesus Christ wearing the crown of thorns, a common subject in Christian iconography, also known as Ecce Homo. This type of work has deep roots in tradition, particularly in the Byzantine and ancient Italian styles. Subject: It depicts the suffering face of Christ during the Passion, with blood dripping from his forehead due to the crown of thorns. Style: It features dramatic lighting that highlights the features. Support and Condition: Oil painting on canvas, shows signs of aging and wear. It finds many similarities with a painting sold at an auction, Christ from the workshop of Philippe De Champaigne (1602-1664). A work of great depth, the face of Christ is very realistic, note the tears, a work to be studied. Size: 32.5 cm x 24.5 cm
