Description

Monumental Antique Carved Wooden Mirror - Orientalist/Moorish Style - Late 19th Century. Exceptional large antique mirror, framed by a richly carved architectural structure inspired by Moorish and Orientalist motifs. The frame features finely chiseled friezes, arabesques, and floral designs, with a polylobed pointed arch elegantly highlighting the glass. The side panels are adorned with decorative niches and turned columns, giving the whole an almost palatial appearance. The composition evokes a portal or mihrab, making this piece a true element of interior architecture. Material: solid carved wood. Glass: beveled. Period: late 19th century. Style: Orientalist, Moorish, Neo-Moorish. Condition: very good overall condition, with a warm antique patina. A rare and spectacular piece, ideal for an
