Description

Louis Philippe period secretary desk in burr walnut, dating from the 19th century. This elegant piece is distinguished by its magnificent butterfly-wing grain and its veined black marble top, adding a touch of refinement and nobility. The drop-front opens to reveal a functional writing surface with niches and small interior drawers, ideal for storing documents or precious objects. The lower section includes several spacious drawers offering ample storage capacity. Solid construction, beautiful antique patina, authentic charm. Visible signs of age (see photos), without affecting the stability or the overall aesthetic of the piece. Ideal for classic decor, a period home, or a charming interior. Dimensions: H143 x W98 x D40 cm. Collection
