Description

A very fine Louis XIII style buffet in solid walnut, resting on two square rear legs and two ball-shaped front legs, topped with a wide molding. The lower section features two drawers with iron handles, also topped with molding. The upper part of the piece opens with two thick doors paneled in a diamond pattern. The sides are also composed of intricately worked panels in lozenge and diamond patterns. This piece was made in the 19th century using much older elements.
