Description

A charming and amusing small Louis XIII-Louis XIV style table of modest proportions (see photos 1 and 2 for comparison). It rests on four turned baluster legs connected by a square stretcher. The apron opens at the front with a drawer fitted with an iron pull. The whole is topped with an overhanging tabletop, its edge adorned with a small molding. A fine piece of late 19th/early 20th-century craftsmanship in the purest 17th-century style. Dimensions: Height to tabletop 63 cm, Height to apron 53 cm, Length 70 cm, Depth 49 cm.
