Description

Provençal Louis XV Walnut Wardrobe - 18th Century. A beautiful Provençal wardrobe in the Louis XV style, crafted from solid walnut, dating from the 18th century. It features two doors with shaped panels and elegant, flowing moldings, typical of Provençal furniture of this period. The cornice is molded and straight. The front is straight, resting on cabriole legs. The lower section is adorned with a drawer with a serpentine front, a characteristic and sought-after element of the Louis XV style. The hardware and keyhole escutcheons are in antique bronze. The interior is fitted with antique shelves and retains its original fabric. An authentic wardrobe, in good overall condition, displaying a beautiful patina and the normal signs of age. A decorative and perfectly functional piece of furniture. Period: 18th century
