

Japanese Bronze Perfume Burner Vase, 19th Century, Meiji Period (1868-1912)

500 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Bronze

Length : 16

Width : 16

Diameter : 5

Height : 46

Description

Japanese perfume burning vase in Bronze 19th century Meiji period (1868-1912) Emerging from a Japan in full metamorphosis, opening its craft to the Western world, this bronze vase with handles embodies the subtle encounter between ancestral Japanese tradition. Created in the Meiji period of 1880, it celebrates the deep connection between Japanese art and nature, with a taste for the style of European bronze, with its talking decor inspired by nature and its small birds, and the contemporary modernity of the second half of the 19th century for an elite European clientele, seeking the Japanese exoticism in its interior. This vase is a true gem of the history of Japanese cultural art, the burning perfume being an object of refined interiors in Asia to maintain a good smell in the house as well as "purify" the air and

Dealer

l'Antochine

Antiquities from XVIIth to XXth century, Religious Art & Asian Arts

Mobile : 0783636220

La Ferté-Saint-Aubin 45240

the atmosphere according to the codes of Feng Shui. Very popular with lovers and collectors of Asian arts, this bronze from the Meiji era has been restored in order to continue to serve and fascinate collectors. Lovers of perfume burners & vases in Japanese bronzes or collectors of Asian curiosities, don't wait any longer and order without further delay this Meiji bronze vase! Fast & neat shipping in France, Europe and worldwide. Dimensions-> Height : 46 cm-> Overall diameter : 15 cm-> Diameter of the base : 16 cm-> Inner diameter : 5 cm-> Weight : 3.8 kg