Description

Owe Zerge was a Swedish artist born in Kristianstad in 1894. Between 1914 and 1915, Zerge studied at the Althin School of Painting in Stockholm. He then attended the Royal Institute of Art in Stockholm, where he studied under Olle Hjortzberg and Oscar Björck from 1915 to 1919. During the same period, he also briefly attended Axel Tallberg's printmaking school. He subsequently undertook study trips to Italy and France, where he studied under André Lhote. Zerge made his debut at the Paris Salon in 1921 and, the following year, exhibited at the Liljevalchs Konsthall in Stockholm. He specialized in portraits, figurative motifs, flowers, and landscapes. In recent years, his portraits have attracted attention; They are characterized by their sharpness and detail and are almost
