Description

This elegant English sideboard (late 18th century) dates back to the late 18th century, crafted from fine mahogany with a splendid flamed grain that embellishes the entire surface. The cabinet features an upper drawer and two doors below, both finished with simple, balanced paneling in perfect late-Georgian style. The sides feature refined carvings with plant motifs, executed with great craftsmanship, while the chiseled brass ring handles add a touch of elegance typical of the period. The entire piece is topped with a gray Bardiglio marble top, characterized by delicate nuances that provide contrast and luminosity. A charming piece of furniture, ideal for classic settings or for adding a touch of prestige to contemporary interiors. Perfectly preserved and of considerable historical and decorative
