Description

Ivory relief rounded at the top, depicting the mockery of Christ. Presumably Flanders 17th century. Height: 11 cm. Provenance: Dutch private collection* With CITES Certificate for Commercial Activities within the EU In good restored condition This deep relief depicting the Mockery of Christ shows characteristics of sculpture in a late Renaissance style. Especially the heavy and broad and naturalistically depicted chest of Jesus points to this. The relief is most likely based on a copper engraving or a painting by a late 16th century artist and made by a well-trained Flemish or German sculptor in the first half of the 17th century.
