Description

Elegant Neapolitan chest of drawers from the late 18th century, crafted in fine solid walnut wood and executed in refined Transitional style. The piece features two large drawers, enhanced by delicate inlaid stringing that highlights its sober elegance. The slightly curved legs give lightness and movement to the structure, while the original bronze handles complete the design with a refined decorative touch. A fine example of Southern Italian furniture of the late 1700s, ideal for collectors and classic interiors. Origin: Southern Italy (Naples) Period: Late 18th century Style: Transitional Material: Walnut wood Dimensions: 122 x 54 x 84 h cm SKU: 17279
