Description

A beautiful floral still life featuring an abundant bouquet of pale hydrangeas and flowers in shades of red, yellow, and ivory, arranged in a green-footed vase adorned with a medallion-style design. The black background perfectly highlights the volumes and colors, creating an intimate and decorative atmosphere, typical of floral compositions. The painted surface displays a visible, old craquelure, which contributes to the charm and patina of the work. The piece is presented in a molded and carved wooden frame with a foliate motif, featuring alternating gilt and black sections, creating a striking presence. An ideal piece for a classic interior or a distinctive décor. Dutch School, 19th century
