Description

Pair of 18k Gold Earrings with Old Cut Diamonds and Cultured Pearls - Belgian Work from the 1950s Description: An elegant pair of 1950s earrings crafted in 18k white gold, perfectly illustrating the refinement of post-war Belgian jewelry. Each earring is articulated and punctuated by a line of old-cut diamonds arranged in a subtle gradient, offering a soft and harmonious play of light, typical of jewelry designs from this period. The ensemble is subtly finished with beautiful cultured pearls, with rich nacre and slightly grayish reflections, adding depth and elegance to the composition. The precise and well-proportioned settings demonstrate meticulous and high-quality craftsmanship, with diamonds held in classic prong settings. These earrings have excellent
