Description

Monumental Holy Trinity with Radiant Glory - Carved, polychrome, gilded, and patinated wood - 19th century. An imposing wall sculpture representing the Holy Trinity according to traditional iconography: Description: God the Father, the sovereign and blessing figure, Christ the Redeemer, and the dove of the Holy Spirit, united in a powerful and highly expressive theological composition. The sculpted group rests on a large, turbulent cloud, finely modeled and enhanced with gilded highlights, supporting a symbolic globe painted green. The whole is surrounded by a circular glory with radiating rays, entirely sculpted and gilded, giving the work a spectacular visual presence and a strong liturgical dimension. The exceptional size of this sculpture makes it a rare piece on the market.
