

Charles Desavary 1837-1885. "bouquet Of Flowers."

1 100 EUR

Signature : Charles Desavary 1837-1885.

Period : 19th century

Condition : Parfait état

Material : Oil painting

Width : 36

Height : 45

Description

Charles Desavary 1837-1885. "Bouquet of Flowers." Oil on canvas, mounted on wood. Signed and dated August 1860 lower left. Dimensions of the subject: 45 x 36 cm. Dimensions with frame : 51.8 x 43.3 cm. Charles Desavary was a student of Constant Dutilleux, whose son-in-law he became. He also studied under Thomas Couture and Camille Corot, with whom he became friends, as well as Eugène Delacroix. He exhibited regularly at the Paris Salon from 1868 to 1885. Museums : A significant collection of his paintings and photographs is held at the Musée des Beaux-Arts in Arras. Paris: Musée d'Orsay and Musée Eugène Delacroix. Condition : Minor restorations

Dealer

Galerie Ricoux

Paintings, drawings and watercolors.

Tel : 07 68 03 11 97

Fresnay sur Sarthe 72130