A Monumental Vase In Chased Copper, Originating From Iran (ancient Persia)

600 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Etat d'usage

Material : Copper

Width : 90

Height : 2.10

Description

Exceptional Monumental Ceremonial Vase in Chiseled Copper - Persian Art - 210 cm Description: We present an absolutely extraordinary decorative piece: a monumental vase in chiseled copper, originating from Iran (ancient Persia), rising to a prestigious height of 2.10 meters. This work of oriental metalwork is distinguished by its slender silhouette and its remarkably fine, all-encompassing decoration. Entirely handcrafted, it testifies to ancestral expertise in the art of repoussé and chiseled metalwork. Main Characteristics: o Dimensions: Exceptional height of 210 cm. A centerpiece capable of single-handedly structuring a grand entrance hall, a conservatory, or a reception room. o Decoration: Rich ornamentation of geometric motifs, scale friezes, and floral motifs

Dealer

Antiquités Victor Lardin

Antiquités Victor Lardin, généraliste depuis générations

06-16-90-26-66

Mobile : 0616902666

847 chemin de Fontmerle

Antibes 06600

typical of the Persian ornamental repertoire. o Details: The vase is topped with a gadrooned lid with a high finial and flanked by two stylized scroll-shaped handles, accentuating its majesty. o Patina: A beautiful original patina with gray-green and coppery hues lends the object an authentic and timeless character. Condition and Use: This piece is in excellent overall condition. Due to its palatial dimensions, it is a rare collector's item on the market, ideal for interior designers or collectors of Islamic and Orientalist art seeking a piece with a strong visual impact.