Description

This Aubusson-style knotted rug embodies the grand French decorative tradition inspired by Louis XVI, thanks to its refined design, balanced composition, and elegant color palette. The central field, in a luminous ivory tone, is enlivened by a delicate floral motif arranged around a refined central bouquet of roses and stylized flowers in powdery shades of pink and green. This central composition is harmoniously framed by a wide, deep green border, richly adorned with scrolls, floral garlands, and gilded arabesques, adding contrast and depth to the whole. The generously extended borders feature a profusion of floral motifs, foliage, and classically inspired ornamental elements, highlighted by ivory, cream, and nuanced green tones. The curved shapes, cartouches, and decorative scrolls lend
