Description

A rare and very beautiful solid silver spoon decorated with a mascaron motif. The spoon is decorated with a grotesque face in white silver on a background of matte, gilt-gilt cut leather. The handle is decorated with a vase, its lower portion adorned with a vase, and a long cascade of coins. The cascade is in white silver and contrasts magnificently with the gilt rim. On the back of the spoon is an oval cartouche monogrammed BB (?). The back of the bowl is also decorated with another face. The gilt-gilt bowl is delicately pierced. This sugar shaker is reminiscent of the famous Puiforcat model, although our version is much rarer, with some stylistic differences. The spoon is hallmarked: Minerva 1st standard, pre-1973A well-struck silversmith's mark, but with slightly blurred lettering. Perhaps not
