Description

Fascinating Mexican votive cross decorated with milagros, an authentic testimony of Latin American folk devotion. The wooden base, entirely enriched with hand-applied metal inserts, features a beautiful antique patina, visible both on the wooden support and on the metal elements. Milagros are small traditional ex-votos, widespread in Mexico since the colonial period: devotional offerings left in gratitude or as a request for protection, healing, or divine intercession.

Hearts, body parts, symbols, and figures are applied to crosses, specific shapes, panels, or sacred images, transforming the object into a true map of faith, lived experience, and hope. Each milagro tells the story of a wish, a grace received or invoked, making these artifacts deeply
