Description

Description This pair of vintage abstract lithographs consists of two signed limited edition prints executed through layered lithographic processes. Both works combine flat colour fields with linear drafting, overprinting, and controlled gestural marks. One composition is organized around a dominant red plane intersected by circular forms, angular elements, and textured passages in blue, green, black, and yellow. The second lithograph employs a darker tonal ground, structured through fine linear diagrams, curved arcs, and simplified geometric symbols rendered in muted blues and greys. Variations in line weight, transparency, and surface texture indicate multiple printing stages and deliberate registration. The consistent scale, framing, and visual language support their presentation as a
