Description

Description This oil on canvas by Sebastià Badia depicts a simple landscape with two trees positioned on gently rising ground, painted in an impressionist style. The composition is structured around vertical tree forms set against a loosely rendered background. A muted palette of ochre, yellow, blue, and earthy red tones suggests an autumn setting. Brushwork is visible and layered, creating texture and soft transitions of light and color. Depth is conveyed through tonal variation rather than defined perspective. The overall handling reflects mid-20th-century European landscape painting. Artist Sebastià Badia (b. 1916) was a European painter associated with impressionist landscape traditions. Artist Details Badia focused primarily on landscape subjects, using expressive brushwork and
