Description

A very rare patinated brass and glass shop display case from the Brot company, Faubourg du Temple, Paris. It is an asymmetrical model with a curved left side featuring a domed glass panel, and a flat right side. It has one height-adjustable shelf and sliding doors. This display case is sold in its original, as-found condition. The metal needs polishing, and there are some chips in the glass. However, it is a rare model on the market. The piece is quite heavy (between 15 and 25 kg) and will need to be placed on a stand. Delivery is by me only; please contact me for a quote with your city. Delivery is free once a month in Paris and the surrounding region.
