Description

Sideboard from 1925/30 attributed to Maison Dominique (France). Clean lines and quality material: Rio rosewood. Stamped on the back. Dimensions: Length 1.80m, Height 96cm, Depth 56cm. Maison Dominique was a design and cabinetmaking firm founded in 1922 by André Domin (1883-1962) and Marcel Genevrière (1885-1967). It established itself as a major reference in the Art Deco style, designing exceptional furniture with elegant lines and refined materials. History and style: André Domin and Marcel Genevrière met at the beginning of the 20th century and collaborated to create an interior design firm specializing in luxury furniture. Maison Dominique distinguished itself with a clean style, playing on the contrasts of noble materials such as rosewood,
