

Empire-style Gilt Bronze Clock Depicting An Allegory Of The Sciences And Arts. 19th Century

1 480 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Bronze

Width : 30cm

Height : 39cm

Depth : 10,5cm

Description

Empire period gilt bronze clock - Allegory of the Sciences and Arts - Winged Angel, Consulate period. A finely chased and mercury-gilded bronze Empire/Consulate period clock. Allegory of the Sciences and Arts: library, scientific instruments, celestial globe and armillary sphere, accompanied by a winged angel. Dial signed "À Toulouse". Very fine quality of chasing and original gilding. Circa 1805-1815. The pendulum is missing and needs servicing.

Dealer

Galerie Christophe Elisabeth

Galerie Christophe Elisabeth

Mobile : 06 99 48 80 76

1 domaine de Montrabech

Lézignan-Corbières 11200