Description

Elegant oil painting on canvas, embellished with a carved and gilded wooden frame and completed with a white fabric mat. The painting depicts an interior scene, with a child dressed in period clothing sitting on the floor and playing with a ball in the foreground. A plant can be seen around him, while red curtains can be glimpsed in the background. This is a work of great taste and refinement, appreciated for its color and detail, capable of adding a touch of class to any space. At the bottom left is the signature "N. Bencini" and the date October 1929. The painting is by the celebrated Tuscan painter Natale Bencini
