Description

A unique anthropomorphic sculpture, a head, in glazed terracotta, a piece of folk art, likely a workshop or training work, originating from Haute-Vienne, dating from the 1970s-2000s. In a brutalist and modernist style, it depicts a figure with angular volumes and accentuated features, glazed with a high-gloss finish. Signed "Patrick" under the base. Approximately 14cm high, 13cm wide, and 6cm deep. Very good overall condition. Some minor, original firing cracks. Approximately 700g.
