This work depicts a Mediterranean landscape dominated by two majestic umbrella pines, whose umbrella-like silhouettes stand out elegantly against a light background. In the background, a few slender palm trees accentuate the southern atmosphere of the composition. Executed in brown wash, this work reveals a masterful command of transparency and tonal values, allowing the artist to suggest depth and light with remarkable economy of means. The drawing, supple and balanced, conveys a poetic and peaceful vision of nature, characteristic of Marie-Louise Lustremant's work. Signed work, first half of the 20th century. Beautifully presented, highly decorative. Dimensions: 30 x 26 cm, black wood frame with glass.
