Description

Oil on wood panel depicting an elegant bouquet of flowers, signed lower right by Marie-Louise Lustremant (1880-1965), a 20th-century French painter. This floral composition is distinguished by its free and generous brushstrokes, beautiful paint application, and a subtle palette of pinks, reds, and whites against a dark background. The work is firmly rooted in the tradition of the French modern school, with a sensitive and spontaneous approach to still life. The panel is presented in its original antique giltwood frame, which elegantly enhances the painting. On the reverse, old inscriptions confirm the work's authenticity. A truly decorative and refined piece, ideal for a modern art collection or an elegant interior. Artist: Marie-Louise Lustremant (1880-1965) Subject: Bouquet of Flowers
