Description

Art Deco "Tank" Ring in 18k Gold and Diamonds
Description: This Art Deco Tank ring, characteristic of the 1930s and 40s, is crafted in 18k gold. The wide, architectural setting features a geometric composition typical of this period, with a linear setting of three old-cut diamonds. The central diamond weighs 0.25 carats and is flanked by two outer diamonds of 0.35 carats each. The old-cut diamonds offer a soft, vibrant brilliance, in keeping with the standards of Art Deco jewelry. This ring perfectly illustrates the structured and assertive aesthetic of the Tank style, combining presence on the wrist with timeless elegance. Resizing is possible, provided the setting is respected. Specifications Period: Art Deco Model: Tank Metal: 18k Gold Stones: 1 old-cut diamond: 0.25 carat 2 old-cut diamonds:
