

Pair Of Bronze Tulip Trees

Description

pair of bronze figures depicting monkeys holding cut crystal tulip trees and porcelain cups. The bases are marble. They are in the style of the 18th century, when such figures often depicted satirical, comic, or even critical scenes. These "monkey-like" figures were displayed in salons as paintings or curiosities. They are interesting and rare. A must-have.

500 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Parfait état

Material : Bronze

Length : 14 cm max

Height : 23 cm

Dealer

Au Temps Patiné - Francine Roche

Francine Roche généraliste. Antoine Roche Céramique 20ème.

Tel : 0607011194

12 rue principale

Laroin 64110