Description

Marie-Louise Lustremant (1880-1965) Pencil drawing on paper depicting a view of the village of Pradelles, with the church and its bell tower dominating the surrounding rolling landscape.

This work delicately captures the peaceful atmosphere and architectural structure of the hilltop village, in a sensitive and intimate style characteristic of the artist's work. The drawing is signed lower left "ML Lustremant," with the handwritten notation of the location "Pradelles" below the signature. Framed and glazed, mounted on its original wooden panel. Very good overall condition, with the natural patina of the old paper. Framed and glazed dimensions: 39 x 28 cm
