Description

A very elegant decorative set in cut and engraved crystal, mounted in gilt bronze, comprising a central bowl and two cornets, dating from the late 19th century, in a refined Napoleon III style. The finely engraved crystal cornets feature delicate decoration of plant motifs and arabesques, enhanced by a richly chased bronze mount with rocaille lines and stylized lion heads. The central bowl, in cut crystal, rests on an openwork base adorned with scrolls, foliage, and classical motifs. The set demonstrates great decorative skill and remarkable quality of execution, harmoniously combining the transparency of the crystal with the brilliance of the gilt bronze. Dimensions: Cornets: Height 51.5 cm - Width 20 cm; Bowl: Height 29 cm - Diameter 31 cm
