Description

A very pretty pair of Regency-style armchairs in solid walnut. Each seat rests on four cabriole legs, ending in a beautiful scroll surmounted by an acanthus leaf. The front rail is deeply shaped and richly carved, adorned in the center with a beautiful shell framed by foliage. The two side rails are also shaped and decorated with foliage and shells. The seats of our chairs are very wide and extremely comfortable, having been completely reupholstered recently. The backrest is wide and very high, providing excellent back support. The upholstery is a beautiful light beige velvet and is in good condition, with a very small cigarette burn on the edge of one seat (see last photo). The armrest supports are decorated at their base with an acanthus leaf, and the ends of the armrests feature beautiful relief work. Our
