Description

Important 19th-century key-wound music box by Lecoultre Frères (Switzerland), circa 1850. This firm was among the pioneers of the Swiss music box industry, renowned for the precision of its mechanisms and the quality of its sound. Large 33 cm cylinder playing 8 classical tunes. Marquetry lid. Slight wear on one corner, consistent with age. Mechanism in excellent condition, very beautiful sound. A rare piece of significant historical and decorative value.
